General Comment
Child rights, environment and climate change

Participate!

Children and Young People's Consultation

15 November 2022 - 15 February 2023

The United Nations is inviting people 17 and under to share your solutions on your rights, the environment and climate change to help create international standards for children's environmental rights.

Hold governments accountable to protecting children's environmental rights!

Join us! childrightsenvironment.org/get-involved